THE PROVENÇAL WAY OF LIFE IN UZES, IN THE GARD, BETWEEN THE MEDITERRANEAN SEA AND THE CEVENNES

Uzès is a town that attracts tourists from all over the world, but one that doesn't 'die' out of tourist season. The abundance of good quality shops, the very special Saturday market when people from all over the area come to sell their hand crafted, hand grown and hand made items, the little cinema, the music festival, the 75 restaurants - all of these add to the desirability of the town. But most of all, it is the beauty of architecture, the sense of history (being the first Dukedom in France) and the friendliness of the locals that make this town a good place to live in.
